Dear Sir,

Thank you for the letter dated on 13 May, 02 and for obtaining the right procedure required for revival of this application after that unforeseeable incident.

The mentioned requirement will be accomplished and returned to you office quickly.

In order to pay the required fees directly, I would like to recall some credit which was left in the account of this application in USPTO at the earlier days (more than $ 300).

I would like to give the approval to use this credit for any expenses concerning this application if required directly by USPTO ( please obtain the formal procedure).

I will be under your disposition with my appreciation I remain sincerely.

Best regards

Yours truly
